Do you speak TEEN?

Get your questions answered & so much more at the community event:

#YouthCulture

- Empowers parents and guardians by providing insight into the environment and culture around our youth.
- Explore how the developing adolescent brain shapes perceptions & behavior.
- Discover ways to enhance parent-child communication.

Topics covered include substance use, Internet safety, sexting, and healthy dating relationships.

Wednesday, November 2nd, 2016 from 6:30 pm to 8:30 pm

Millbrook High School

2201 Spring Forest Road

Raleigh 27615

This program is presented by the Poe Center

RSVP by Tuesday, November 1st, 2016

To reserve your spot, please register online at http://bit.ly/2dQ2i1q or contact Jodi Bulmer with questions at (919) 337-2275 OR jodi.bulmer@gmail.com.

PoeCenter™
The Alice Aycock Poe Center for Health Education
poehealth.org